

Teaching children and young people about heaven

17 March 2012, St. Andrews Church, Leyland.

10AM - 4.15PM. Cost: £15

“Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell.” Matt 10:28

Have you ever come across a verse like this and wondered how you could possibly teach it to a child or young person in your group? Ever struggled with how to communicate the wonder of heaven or the disaster of hell in an age appropriate way? The Third Pig is a high quality training day for all youth and children’s leaders, where this year we are going help you to understand what the Scriptures have to say about the afterlife and how we can faithfully teach that to the children and young people God has put in our care.

There will be a range of practical seminars covering a variety of issues.

- 1 Christians online: Encouraging godliness on social networks
- 2 Dealing with death: Addressing bereavement with children and young people
- 3 Preparing a session
- 4 How to link midweek attendees with church.
- 5 How to be a great helper \(i.e. not the main leader of session\)

This year we will also be giving time to looking at how we teach the theme of the day to different age groups. This will include help on how to teach your age group, what the Bible says about heaven and hell and to share ideas with others who are in similar situations to yourself.
